NOSTRADASSA & INVICTUS CHASING VICTORY IN MICHAEL PARRAVICINO

Nostradassa & Invictus will take another step forward to establish themselves as the leading contender for the 2024 Triple Crown when they face the in the Grade 2 Michael Parravicino Memorial.

This year's running of the Michael Parravicino Memorial for 3-year-olds scheduled for 7.8 furlongs headlines an 8-race card.

Richard Deane has trained Nostradassa to three wins in 2024. There was a debut win on August 10 followed by another on September 07. She was then second to Enisa on November 16 before entering the winners' circle again on November 30 in the Grade1 Express Cash BTBA Juvenile Breeders Stakes. On Boxing Day Nostradassa failed to hold off a fast-finishing Valiant in the Crown Of Light Boxing Day Stakes.

Invictus trained by Andrew Nunes was an impressive winner of his debut start on Boxing Day by 3  $\frac{3}{4}$  lengths. Jockey Rachaad Knights will be aboard again.

Zorah won her last start over today's trip on her seventh try. She will be racing for the first time for trainer Kerlan Felicien and he has jockey Shane Collymore booked for the ride.

Dorcas enters from a 3  $\frac{1}{2}$  length win in only her second start. That win came in the Barbados Hotel And Tourism Association Trophy, a handicap over 1100 metres under jockey Rickey Walcott fending off Lailav and Blanco.

Melrose Racing's Moulin Rouge vies for his first career win. Trained by Remel Lovell the son of Copy That finished third in his first start in his November debut last year and then improved to be second in his next start on January 04.
